His parents had no money, although He was a King—
An angel came to Joseph one night as he dreamed.
"Don't be afraid to marry her, this child is God's own Son."
And with these words from God's messenger, their journey had begun.

They travelled to the city, their taxes to be paid—
But when Christ was born they found no place for the baby to be laid.
So they wrapped Him up and used a lowly manger for His bed,
With nothing else but straw to place beneath the Christ-child's head.

The shepherds came to worship Him, the wise men traveled too—
Led by a star up in the sky, they found the baby new.
They gave him gifts so wondrous, their incense, myrrh, and gold,
Thus completes the greatest story of a birth 'twas ever told.

He was just a tiny baby, born in a stable far away—
They had no reservations, and nowhere else to stay.
But His birth was so majestic, in a simple sort of way,
A baby born in Bethlehem on a very special day.

It was the Savior born in Bethlehem, on the very first Christmas Day.

FROM THE PRINCIPAL’S DESK

Dear Parents and Guardians,

Advent marks the start of the Christmas season. At Mass on Sunday you would have seen the second candle of Advent lit. The word Advent, from the Latin, means “the Coming”. It is a time of spiritual reflection as well as happiness and anticipation. This is the time we prepare ourselves for the coming of Jesus at Christmas.

The first and most important thing we can do to prepare our children for Advent is to prepare ourselves first. After all, if we are impatient and crabby - pressured by all the busyness of this season - we won’t be very good at teaching our children anything about quiet, expectant waiting. If they never hear us talk about what we long for from the Lord, how will they learn about this kind of longing?  And, if they hear “the coming of Jesus” talked about at church, and perhaps at school, but never hear us talk about the meaning of the coming of Jesus for us, what kind of message will we be giving them?

Of course, our children will be watching us and listening to us - what we say and do, and what we fail to say and do. So, the first thing we can give our children is our own commitment to enter Advent as deeply as we can. We want to clear our own spirits so that we can be present to theirs. The graces we receive can be the graces we share with them.

End of Year Concert

Wow! What a fantastic evening we had on Wednesday night at our End of Year Concert. Our students dazzled us with their performances and I think we would all agree it was a terrific night. Both the junior and senior students sang like angels and our actors and narrators sizzled on stage with their outstanding performances.

Thank you to our sensational staff who once again were instrumental in the success of our evening. I really appreciate the way they rewrote the script and added a Pilbara flair to the evening. Also the many extra jobs they took on to make the concert run so smoothly, they are awesome people who always show enthusiasm and energy when it comes to our students.

Awards Night

We have absolutely amazing students at our school and at this time of the year we like to recognise them and thank them for their gifts they have shared with us throughout their time at St Cecilia’s. On Wednesday night we recognised four of our amazing students, for their gifts and contributions to the school. I would like to mention each by name.

Year Seven Graduation

On Friday Evening we had the most wonderful Graduation evening as we prepared to say farewell to our Year Seven Students. Mrs Jodie Springhall made sure that the evening was one to remember. We began with the Liturgy of the Word in our Church at 6.00pm. Father John spoke to our leaders and pondered on life and the joys to come. We watched a fantastic power point that allowed us to see how far our Year Sevens have progressed from infancy to now. Miss Tennika Quick, one of our talented students sang the Responsorial Psalm; it was sensational and so moving, she showed great maturity and skill as she sang unaccompanied. Then we headed down to the All Seasons and had an amazing night. The room looked spectacular as our parents and Mrs Springhall really out did themselves on the blue and silver theme. The room was dazzling and our students looked superb. It was a wonderful celebration and everyone had a fabulous night. Mrs Springhall has only been with us for six months however she has led our Year Seven students and really shown great skills as she helped them prepare for High School. The graduation was so memorable and I know that the parents are very grateful for the wonderful work she has done with the children in her care.

I would like to thank all the staff on a wonderful year, their commitment and energy has helped make 2012 such a successful year. We have been involved in so many wonderful events throughout the year and are blessed to have such a committed staff who help out in so many ways. Whenever we are involved in an event, Staff are quick to put their hands up to help; they are creative and zany and make such a difference in the life of our school. So I pray you all have a relaxed and restful holiday and return again next year ready to shine once more.

Farewell to Staff
It is always sad when it is time to say farewell to staff who have been with us in our school community. We have indeed been blessed to have Miss Dee Campbell join our school community two and a half years ago for a six month secondment. Dee began as our Year One teacher then moved into the library and took on the position of Assistant Principal. Dee has been just amazing; she has a passion for education and a great love of children. Dee has been an energetic and enthusiastic member of staff and a driving force in many of our initiatives. For Dee it is all about the children and she feels very strongly on providing the very best we have to offer for the children in our care. We wish Dee all the best as she heads off to her new school of Brighton Catholic Primary and thank her most sincerely for the time she has spent as part of our school community.

Miss Mary Coates joined us six months ago and has been working with our Year Six Students. Mary has really been a wonderful teacher for our students, her enthusiasm and warmth is clear to see and I know she will be greatly missed by her students. In a very short time she has become a very good teacher who really cares about her class. We wish you well as you continue your career in Goomalling.

Welcome to New Staff
At this time we would like to welcome our new Principal Mr Peter Allen who will be joining us this week to meet the staff. On Thursday 13 December we will be having a wine and cheese evening at approximately 6.00pm to 6.40pm in the under cover area, for anyone who would like to meet Peter. If you are able to come would you please ring the front office to let us know for catering purposes.

We would also like to welcome Miss Megan Berry who will be our Year One teacher and Mrs Jane Fealy who will be our Year Six teacher. I know you will make both feel welcome in our school community. Both Jane and Megan will join us in the new year.

Cyclone Season
As we are all aware the cyclone season has arrived again. We would like to bring down all the shades in the school in preparation of the season. Any parent who is able to assist on Wednesday afternoon at 2.35pm would be gratefully appreciated. We would like to ensure that the school is ready if a cyclone was to come, as everyone is taking off on holiday.

St Francis Xavier Cathedral Precinct Project
Our Cathedral in Geraldton is in need of urgent repairs. The Diocese is made up of eleven schools and we as a collective group have been asked to assist with contributing to this fundraising effort. A donation of $25.00 per family per year over the next three years will be added to the school fees. Any family may opt out of the payment, however in doing so any shortfall will need to come from school funds, which will then leave less monies available for resources for our students. Your support would be greatly appreciated.

Partnerships
From the moment you enroll your child at St Cecilia’s you are encouraged to develop a strong partnership with us. Research sends out a very clear message about the importance of partnerships in education. When parents express confidence in the school and teachers, and are involved in some way, their children are more likely to be happier and perform better academically.

At St Cecilia’s we actively seek partnerships with our parents. This is done deliberately, because once forged, these partnerships have been found to result in:
- greater understanding by parents of their child’s schooling,
- greater understanding by teachers of the students and their unique needs,
- better communication and understanding between...
home and school,
- higher pupil morale and confidence,
- increased academic performance,
- increased goodwill and mutual esteem between parents and ‘their’ school.

Conscientious parents all around the world are concerned about the education of their children. They want them to get the most they can from their schooling and to grow up as happy, caring and useful citizens. They also know that the school cannot do this on its own; they need strong parental partnerships. Partnerships are the ‘educational glue’ which assists children to have a happy and productive time at school. We want more for our children than healthy bodies. We want our children to have lives filled with friendship and love and high deeds. We want them to be eager to learn and willing to confront challenges. We want our children to be grateful for what they receive from us, but proud of their own accomplishments. We want them to grow up with confidence in the future, a love of adventure, a sense of justice, and enough courage to act on that sense of justice. We want them to be resilient in the face of the setbacks and failures that growing up always brings. And when the time comes, we want them to be good parents. Our fondest hope is that the quality of their lives will be better than our own, and our inner most desire is that our children will have all our strengths and few of our weaknesses.

The last verse from one of my favourite poems, ‘Unity’ really highlights the importance of the role of the home and school in achieving what ‘we want’:

Day after day, the teacher toiled
With touch that was deft and sure,
And polished and smoothed it o’er.

And when at last their tasks were done
They were proud of what they had wrought,
For things they had moulded into a child
Could neither be sold nor bought.

And each agreed they would have failed
If they had wrought alone,
For behind the parents stood the school
And behind the teacher, the home.

I have been truly blessed being part of St Cecilia’s school and Parish community. It is hard to believe that five years have passed. It has been my absolute pleasure to have been involved in the education and faith development of your children. I believe we have been a partnership working together for the good of our students. This strong partnership which exists is the reason why our community is so strong and productive. I wish you all the best for the future and thank you for allowing me to be part of this amazing community. I will truly miss our school, the students, staff and parents.

God Bless and take care!

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

End of Year Mass
Please join our school community for our End of Year Thanksgiving Mass on Tuesday 11 December at 8.45am at St Cecilia’s Church. We hope to see you there as we bid farewell to some special people and also give thanks to our God for a wonderful 2012.

Advent – Jesus is the Reason for the Season
Just recently, some Year Seven students created a beautiful Christmas display beside the school canteen and in large print it states ‘Remember the true meaning of Christmas’. It is very easy to get caught up into the Christmas buzz – shopping for gifts, baking, preparing for Christmas parties etc...and we can easily lose sight of the true meaning of this advent season. The word ‘advent’ derives from the Latin term ‘adventus’ which means ‘coming’ or ‘arrival’. Therefore Advent is a time of preparation to welcome the birth of our Lord, Jesus. Not only is advent a time of waiting; it is a time of reflection and renewal. As people of faith, we are invited to draw our attention not only within ourselves but also outside ourselves; where we look beyond our own needs and place the needs of others before us. I would like to thank you all for your generous donations towards our Seafarers boxes and our St Vincent De Paul Christmas appeal. Your contribution will make someone else’s Christmas.

Thank You
I would like to take this opportunity to thank you all for your support in 2012. Our school works well when we can draw upon all members in our community. Parents, your presence in our school enriches us and we always appreciate all that you do to support us. A big thank you to the students in our school who are the reason why we do what we do as teachers. Your energy is what energises us each and every day! I would especially like to thank the Sacramental team for their incredible dedication and support this year in making the Sacraments so special for our children. I am incredibly grateful for Fr John who has a kind and loving presence in our school. Fr John is always available to work with me and is incredibly supportive of the Religious Education of our children, often visiting classes and chatting with students around the school.

I would like to thank all the Staff for their dedication and support this year across all areas of school life. It is an honour to work with such a vibrant and passionate staff whose greatest priority is the children. I would also like to express a word of thanks to two people who I work very closely with, Paula MacKenzie and Dee Campbell. It has been great to work with a team of highly passionate, committed and hardworking women. Your highly driven and ‘gung ho’ attitude will be missed at St Celicia’s.

We are full of ambition in Year Two!

We felt inspired watching the clip of Cathy Freeman win Gold at the Sydney Olympics! In 1992 Cathy was the first Aboriginal Australian to represent Australia at the Olympics, prior to that in 1990 during the Commonwealth Games in Auckland she was the first female Aboriginal to win gold at an international athletics event.

Cathy has since started The Cathy Freeman Foundation. This Foundation provides educational programs to over 600 children living on Palm Island, one of the largest remote indigenous communities in Australia. The Cathy Freeman Foundation aims to build confidence and teach skills to help each Indigenous child have a successful future.

We felt inspired hearing about Cathy Freeman and we each thought about what our own goals for the future might be, perhaps to help others or also run at the Olympics one day! Take a look at our ambitions and some of the inspirational Indigenous Australians we researched and now consider role models.

Maurice Rioli played AFL football

Lots of us want to go to the Olympics just like Cathy Freeman, Nova Peris-Kneebone and Anthony Little

We would like to teach just like Professor Peter Bucksin Amy Johnston and Alicia Fuller!
We love the art work of Peter Mulcahy!

Malcolm Maloney Jagamarra creates beautiful art too!

Cullen researched Deborah Mailman, an awesome Indigenous Australian actress!

Some of us want to grow up to be singers just like Jessica Mauboy and Troy Cassar Daley!

LIBRARY BOOKS
A special thank you to our incredible library leaders and helpers in 2012, especially Harrison, Brayden & Kieran who have gone above and beyond. You have done an amazing job this year and some have shown real leadership potential for the future.

I would also like to thank all our wonderful mums who have helped with covering library books for us. We have been blessed to have Ms MacKenzie so ready and willing to aid me in the purchase of many exciting and intriguing books for students of all ages! Thank you for always having the credit card ready!

I have been very fortunate to have a small group of Year Three students who have helped shelve picture books and stamp new books over the year. A special thank you to Olivia Campbell who helped not only at lunchtimes with others when needed, but also after school.

Thank you
Throughout the year we have been fortunate to have so many wonderful parent helpers offering assistance in our school. Many parents help out in classrooms, canteen and craft.

This year we have been blessed to have two fabulous parents working regularly on our Spelling Mastery programme in Year Three. Mrs Emma Merlo and Mrs Liliana Battle have been awesome and have really assisted our Year Three students with their spelling from the beginning of the year to now.

We thank you both for the fantastic work and the help you have given our students.

Rosemary Vrancic
Rosie has been a valued teacher at our school for 28 years; she is currently our Reading Recovery Teacher. She has really made a huge difference to many of our students who struggle with Literacy.

Next year Rosemary will take a year’s leave to work with students in remote Kimberly schools and give them the benefits of her expertise in Reading Recovery.

We wish Rosie all the best and look forward to her return in 2014.

Cheryl Johnston
When Cathy McLaughlin took long service leave we were most fortunate to have Mrs Cheryl Johnson take on the role of Canteen Manageress.

Cheryl has done a fantastic job keeping the canteen ticking along and so I would like to thank Cheryl on behalf of the school community.
