This program was introduced to the school during Term Three this year. Parents and students from different cultural backgrounds were invited to share some of their rich culture with us during our Monday morning greeting. It has been wonderful celebrating the many cultural differences within our school community. The program has been a huge success and will continue into next year as we have many more cultures to celebrate.