After many weeks of preparation, students from the St Cecilia and St John Parishes celebrated their First Holy Communion on Sunday June 26. This was a very important and special time for all the children as it was the first time they received the body and blood of Christ.

Following each mass, the children joined with members of their family and the parish communities to celebrate with a morning tea. A big thank you to everyone who helped to make this a memorable day for all the children involved.