In June 2012, some of the children from St Cecilia’s and St John the Baptist parishes celebrated their First Holy Communion. This was a very important and special time for all the children as it was the first time they received the body and blood of Christ.