

Year Three Communication and Homework for Week Two Term Five 2017

Hi Parents/Caregivers. WOW! Our 75th anniversary celebrations in week three were amazing. It was fantastic to see Bishop Michael Morrissey join us as well as all our visitors and friends. We're now preparing for our big musical, 'Melted'. More information will be going out during the term. I have included extra homework for everyone to do this week relating to areas that we have been learning in class. I will be away on Thursday and Friday of this week. Students can still hand in their books and I will mark on the weekend. Homework will be set out for both week five and six and up on the website. HAVE A FANTASTIC WEEK EVERYONE.

Kind Regards

Lyn Poharama and Team

Literacy - 'Stretching Sentences'		Numeracy: Chance and data: 'Favourite Things'	HASS - 'Information Report on my City, Town or Suburb of Australia
To make your sentences more interesting answer these questions Who? When? Where? Doing what? Why?  Example: On a cold afternoon, the small puppy quietly walked into the warm lounge room and curled up in front of the fire to have a sleep.  Construct 3 of your own sentences using the colour code above as a guide. You may write the sentences using these colours. Do this in your homework book.  Parent initial: _____		Learning Intention: We are learning to . . . * discuss the information shown in simple pictographs and block graphs  TASK: Complete the block graph and question.  Parent initial: _____	Students have started doing some research on the place they have chosen in Australia. I would like the majority of the work done at school, however, I have allowed them to look up facts or print pictures at home and brought into school. I have included a copy of the criteria that we have co-constructed together.  Parent initial: _____
