During the first week of July, the school celebrated NAIDOC Week. The Year Four class led a special assembly on Thursday 7 July to help remind the school community why we celebrate NAIDOC week.

NAIDOC Week began in 1955 as a way for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Island people to join together to celebrate their spirituality, identity, culture and survival.

We celebrated as Christians, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander and non-Indigenous.