In STAR CLUB, children enjoyed exploring the world of books and developing their understanding and comprehension of the different forms of texts. Through the small group exercises the children developed a love for reading and a sense of self achievement.